MEET THE COMPANY

RESILIENCE Dance Company (RDC) is a nonprofit, contemporary modern dance company with a mission to create exceptional dance experiences that fuel human connection. RDC's work is rooted in building healthy, sustainable dance spaces that put artists first and enable curiosity, play, and creative risk taking.

MEET THE DIRECTOR

Emily Haussler is the Artistic and Executive Director of RESILIENCE Dance Company (RDC), founded in 2019 in St. Louis, MO. Her work centers on building healthier, more sustainable dance communities by equipping dancers with resources for their mental health, physical wellbeing, and artistic success. She holds a Bachelor's in Dance and Biology from Washington University in St. Louis and is the recipient Ian D. Cramer prize in Dance. Emily has choreographed five evening-length premieres on RDC, and her work has been shown throughout the Midwest at several universities, festivals, and independent concerts.
